Please see your Plan Summary for details. A recurrence benefit is only available if the initial benefit has already been paid for the covered condition.⁶ And there is a benefit suspension period (or waiting period) between recurrences.⁶ Also, a treatment-free period applies to Cancer [and Benign Tumor conditions].

Am I eligible to enroll for this coverage?

- A. Yes, you can enroll yourself and your eligible family members.⁷ All you need to do is enroll during the enrollment period and be actively at work.

Can I enroll for this insurance without having a medical exam?

- A. Yes. Your critical illness coverage is guaranteed,⁸ regardless of your health. You need to be actively at work to be covered. There are no medical exams to take and no health questions to answer, so the whole process might be easier than you think.

I have a medical plan at work, so why do I need critical illness insurance?

- A. One of the hardest parts of managing illnesses like cancer, a heart attack, or a stroke is providing the support and comfort your family needs beyond the cost of care. Even the best medical and disability income plans can leave you with extra expenses like medical plan deductibles and co-pays or extra costs for out-of-network care. And if you're out of work because of a disability, it might be that only a portion of your pre-disability income is being paid to you. Many people aren't prepared to handle the extra costs that can come with a critical illness, so having this extra cash lump-sum payment may mean less worry for you and your family.

If my employment status changes, can I take my coverage with me?

A. Yes, This coverage is portable, meaning you can take it wherever you go. Your coverage will only end if you stop paying your premium or if your employer offers you similar coverage with a different insurance carrier.⁹

How do I pay for my coverage and how much will it cost?
