

Covid-19 Emergency Services

Services	During the Emergency Period	Starting May 12, 2023
COVID-19 Vaccine immunizations including boosters	Members pay $0 for Covid immunizations at any location.	Members will pay $0 for Covid immunization done by Network providers.
COVID-19 Over The Counter (OTC) home test kits	Members pay $0 for select home OTC Covid test kits	Members will pay the retail cost of home Covid test kits. These are OTC items and would no longer covered.
COVID-19 lab tests	Members pay $0 for lab tests, including rapid diagnostic and lab processed Covid tests.	Standard Network and Non Network outpatient testing benefits will apply including member cost share: Deductible, Coinsurance, or Copay.
Evaluation & Management Visits (E&M) - Telemedicine, Urgent Care, ER and Office Visits associated with COVID-19 tests	Members pay $0 for E & M visits associated (Network & Non Network) Covid visits when there is an associated COVID-19 test done within 2 days before or 2 days after the visit.	Standard Network and Non Network benefits would apply including member cost share: Deductible, Coinsurance, or Copay regardless of whether a Covid -19 test has been or is done.
COVID-19 anti-viral medications or treatments	Members pay $0 for these prescriptions	No change. Members will pay $0 for these prescriptions while the Federal government supply is available.
Pharmacist Assessment & Prescribing of Paxlovid program.	Members pay $0 for pharmacist assessment and prescribing of Paxlovid at pharmacies.	No change.
COVID-19 monoclonal antibodies	Members pay normal cost sharing for EUA-approved monoclonal antibody treatments.	No change. Members will continue to pay normal cost sharing.
COBRA, HIPAA, special enrollment and benefit claims and appeals.	The national emergency extended deadlines for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • COBRA elections • Paying COBRA premiums • Electing HIPAA special enrollment • Filing claims, appeals, and requests for external review 	Deadlines return to normal timeframes starting July 10, 2023.